

SENATOR HABERMAN: Someone has to pay to have the forms printed in the first place, and that's what the money is for.

SENATOR HOHENSTEIN: Okay, then the fiscal note, evidently, is inaccurate, because it says it...it...it includes administrative costs to process the registration of keg ID's.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Yes, that's correct.

SENATOR HOHENSTEIN: Okay. So we're going to register the keg ID's. Frankly, those won't be registered until long after they've been returned from the party where the minors are drinking it. But I...I guess I have no other questions.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Hohenstein. Senator Withem.

SENATOR WITHEM: Yes, Mr. Speaker, members of the body, I, too, was looking at the fiscal note and also looking at the A bill. And I am trying to identify, within the various amendments that have been offered and adopted, what the change might be that...that has caused us to go from $1,000 to $7,000. Now, admittedly, $6,300 is not a huge sum of money, but this process of having information that we can...can rely upon is important. And I'm trying to figure out what changes were made to cause this seven-fold increase in the...from the original fiscal note that we had, which we relied upon, on General File, to what is here now. I guess I will not ask Senator Haberman to point those out specifically at this point. But I would appreciate, prior to acting on this A bill on Select File, if somebody could provide that information to me. I don't see what those changes are. The committee amendment seemed to only...only lower capacity of beer containers, subject to registration, from six gallon to five gallons. I don't know that that is the big change. I would just appreciate knowing that and put Senator Haberman or staff of General Affairs Committee, or whoever might be appropriate to answer that, but I would like to have some answers to that question by Select File. Thank you very much.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Withem. Senator Haberman, yours is the only light on. Do you wish to close?

SENATOR HABERMAN: ...answer Senator Withem's questions.

SPEAKER BAACK: Yes.
